UNITED STATES MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS

Ambassador Anthony H. Gioia

Anthony H. Gioia was born on November 10, 1941 and has been a lifelong resident of upstate New York. Ambassador Gioia's education includes a Bachelor of Science degree from the State University of New York at Buffalo and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Southern California, with a major in Marketing.

In years past, Ambassador Gioia has served as Chairman of the National Pasta Association, founding Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Greater Buffalo Savings Bank, and the Board of Directors of Perry's Ice Cream. In 1995, Governor George Pataki appointed Ambassador Gioia to the Board of the New York State Urban Development Corporation, the state's lead economic development agency along with the State Job Development Authority. He has also served on the Board of Directors of Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation – upstate New York's largest public utility, the Greater Buffalo Partnership, and Albright Knox Art Gallery, as Chairman of the Board of Children's Hospital of Buffalo and Chairman of the Kaleida Health System, the largest healthcare system in upstate New York.

On April 4, 2001, President George W. Bush announced his intention to nominate Anthony H. Gioia to be Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the United States of America to the Republic of Malta. The new Ambassador was sworn in on Wednesday, August 8, 2001 by U.S. Secretary of State Colin Powell, and arrived in Malta on Thursday, August 23, 2001.

In August 2005, after returning to the U.S. from Malta, Ambassador Gioia resumed his duties as Chairman of Gioia Management Inc. and Cello-Pack Corporation and was appointed Chair of the Erie Canal Harbor Development Corporation's Board of Directors by New York State Governor George Pataki where he served until July 2007.

He is married to the former Donna Hornung and they have three children; Anthony H. Jr., David W. and Elizabeth and seven grandchildren.
